

C O N T E N T S

INTRODUCTION	1
My Approach to This Project.....	4
My Experience on the Street	6
A Brief History of the Homeless Mentally Ill.....	13
Paths to Becoming Mentally Ill and Homeless.....	18
Barely Getting By	24
Against All Odds.....	29
Breaking the Cycle of Social Stigma	30
IMAGES AND STORIES	34
“I used to live in a home. Now I live in a cardboard box.” (Mary)	37
“The angels of suffering are screeching at me!” (David).....	38
“Is that all you could get me?” (Daniel)	42
“He needs to see I’ve done my penance.” (Barbara)	46
The Chess Game	54
Man Examining His Sock	56
“The world ended in 1967, and there’s no place to go.” (Man with His Bicycle)	60
Woman with Her Sleeping Bag (Alexandra)	62
“I’m gonna die sooner or later. I don’t really care when. I’m too sad.” (Tatanka Luta)	64
“I was four years on death row.” (Man with His Dog).....	68
“My two daughters were blown to bits by suicide bombers in Iraq.” (Heidi)	70
“Well, I don’t know what rock bottom is, if this isn’t it. I have nothing left!” (Ryan)	76
“Sometimes I get tired of having a roof over my head.” (Linda).....	80
“I’ve traded my pain medication away for crack.” (Gregg)	87

“I’m sure my mom didn’t want to give me away.” (Man with His Daffy Tie).....	90
“I fell from the Empire State Building to the curb.” (Bridgett).....	92
“One day you’re going to kill me!” (James).....	104
“I’m immune to pain in my body, but when someone hurts my feelings, it makes me feel real sad and I cry.” (Erradyse).....	106
“If you have no teeth, it’s proof that you’ve fucked up real bad—that you must be nothing but a fuck-up!” (Jeff)	112
“I don’t sleep. I don’t eat.” (Michael).....	120
“My mother must have known what my father was doing even before he raped me.” (Rebecca)	122
“I’m goin’ to sell these shoes for $10,000.” (The Shoe Salesman)	130
“Too many people are dead here.” (Woman from Honolulu).....	134
“After my first kill, it got to be nothing.” (Walter)	136
“I sleep where the frog people live.” (Rhonda)	142
The Gang: Max, Sabrina, and Jed.....	144
“I’m not proud of some of the shit I did.” (Max)	144
“Now I’m here, and I’m not quite sure where I’m going.” (Sabrina)	148
“I came to San Francisco to die.” (Jed)	152
“Someone broke into my hotel room and stole my eye.” (Rose)	154
“It’s hard having a relationship when you’re living on the street.” (Donna)	158
“The Devil is here!” (Maria)	164
“Whenever I live inside, I start thinking about what I’ve lost.” (Jonathan).....	168
Man with a Cane (Jessie)	170
“My mama traded my bicycle for a six-pack of booze.” (Lee)	174
“Life on the streets isn’t easy, but it’s not desperately hard.”	178
“The psych meds made me itch so bad I couldn’t stop scratching myself.”	180
“Everyone says how tough it is to be homeless, but I’m good at it.” (Vince)...	182
“I was like a wolf. I’d only come out at night.” (Don)	194
“Some days, I wake up not knowing who I am.” (George)	196

“I won’t touch the dead branches of your filth.” (Klauss)	198
“Then in a matter of 2001, one of these little helicopters came down and shot me in the butt with a beangun.” (Robert)	200
CONCLUSION	203
Appendix A: What Is Needed	207
Appendix B: History of the Homeless Mentally Ill.....	213
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	229
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	231